

HYPERMARKER: Horizon Europe grant for research into better, personalised treatment for high blood pressure

Information on project partners:

1. University Medical Center Utrecht (Netherlands)

UMC Utrecht is one of the top-ranked academic medical centers in Europe with the core tasks of healthcare, research, and education. With more than 12,000 employees, UMC Utrecht, which includes the Wilhelmina Children's Hospital, is one of the largest public healthcare institutions in the Netherlands and the largest employer in the Utrecht region. Our mission: together we improve people's health and create the healthcare of the future.

2. University of Birmingham & University Hospitals Birmingham NHS Foundation Trust (UK)

A world top-100 university, Birmingham has a track record of cutting-edge health data science to improve the care and lives of patients, with expertise in application of artificial intelligence, public engagement, and innovation in clinical trials.

3. Universiteit Leiden (Netherlands)

The University of Leiden is world-wide recognized for its advanced drug and data science research to improve healthcare with its expertise in metabolomics, FAIR data and pharmacology.

4. Medical Center Hamburg-Eppendorf (Germany)

Since its foundation in 1889, the Medical Center Hamburg-Eppendorf (UKE) has been one of the leading clinics in Europe. With about 14,400 employees, the UKE is one of the largest employers in the Free and Hanseatic City of Hamburg. The UKE medicates about 497,000 patients a year and educates about 3,400 medical specialists and dentists.

5. Utrecht University (Netherlands)

Utrecht University is recognised internationally for its high-quality, innovative approach to research and teaching.

6. London School of Economics (UK)

The London School of Economics is a social science specialist university, with a global community in the heart of London and a commitment to shape the world.

7. Medicine Men (Netherlands)

Medicine Men is the company behind the successful Viduet Telehealth platform. Viduet is used for many clinical remote patient monitoring and therapy applications within Hospitals and Primary care. The multilingual system is used at all Hypermarker sites to have test persons measure their blood pressure using the HBPM and ABPM method.

8. INCLIVA Biomedical Research Institute (Spain)

A biomedical research institute included in the framework of centres of scientific excellence promoted by the Spanish Government and accredited by the National Health Institute Carlos III. It manages and promotes the biomedical research of the University Clinic Hospital of Valencia, the School of Medicine of the University of Valencia, and the Carlos Simon Foundation for Research in Women's Health.

9. Euretos (Netherlands)

Euretos is a company located in Utrecht, The Netherlands, which creates biological knowledge graphs to support biopharmaceutical industry in preclinical target discovery.

10. European Heart Network (Belgium)

The European Heart Network is a non-profit alliance of foundations and associations that plays a leading role in the prevention and reduction of cardiovascular diseases through advocacy, networking, capacity-building, representing patient interests, and research so that they are no longer a major cause of premature death and disability throughout Europe.

11. Roche Diagnostics (Netherlands)

Roche Diagnostics, global leader in in-vitro diagnostics, is a division of Roche, the world's largest biotechnology company. In more than 100 countries, we offer the industry's most comprehensive in-vitro diagnostics testing portfolio combined with clinical decision support. We are committed to not only advancing diagnostic solutions that can support healthcare professionals in making critical decisions for their patients' health, but also improving the way these essential tools are integrated into health systems around the world.

12. Steinbeisser Project Management UG (Germany)

Is a company specialised in supporting research projects in funding, communication and project management.